About Myself

I am Arpan Parekh, son of Anilkumar Champaklal Parekh. I was born and brought up at Jetpur, Gujarat in a Vaishnav Bania family. I am fortunate enough to carry forward the legacy of the values and culture my great great grandfather had set in business of gold & silver jewellery some 150 years ago.

As a teenager, I learnt the basics of gold trade at our retail shop and wholesaling firm within the family. In those days I travelled and dealt with Large Retailers and Wholesalers in Tamilnadu, and benefitted immense knowledge from them.

In 2002, I moved to Mumbai to learn about Gem Stones and diamonds. After completing the course, I ventured into trading jewellery in Tamilnadu and Zaveri Bazaar on my own. At Zaveri Bazaar, I found not just clients, but also best friends for life, gem of the gems, mentors, and guides. I value the relationship which we have built with our Clients and Artisans. At this juncture of my life, I wish to express my gratitude to all by giving something back to the society and Gem & Jewellery industry through GJC.

I am passionate about creating nice jewellery pieces. Listening and understanding the needs of my customers and market, helps me in making the best products with best possible manufacturing and trading standards. End users will really love to adorn themselves with the pieces created by us.

Besides Jewellery, I love reading books, traveling, listening to the music and watching movies.
