A brief write up about yourself (not more than 200 words, a separate sheet may be attached):	I have been involved with Gems and Jewellery industry for the past 25 years. After completing Electrical Engineering from VJTI and MBA (Marketing) from Symbiosis I joined the family firm at Waman Hari Pethe Jewellers. Currently involved in the Marketing, Legal, Procurement functions for the company. Have been instrumental in launching successful fusion collections (Navinya) for the company. I have been involved with various industry bodies for the past many years. Currently I am the Co-convenor for National Jewellery Awards 2018 - an initiative by GJC.
Your plans, or your manifesto for GJC and industry (not more than 200 words, a separate sheet may be attached):	If elected I propose to work whole-heartedly to improve the business environment for the Gems & Jewellery sector. Will continue the efforts started to educate the smallest players of the industry about GST and formalisation of the G&J industry. Skilling of the unorganised labour force is also an important area to work on, in conjunction with GJSCI. Awareness and education regarding CVD also needs to be increased with various labs. Efforts to promote innovation and design excellence through GJC initiatives like National Jewellery Awards to be strengthened. Will try and continue efforts to propose and involve Jewellers fraternity in implementation of Gold Monetisation Scheme.
