I am also the Vice President of Tamilnadu Jewellers Federation and also the Vice president of the Coimbatore Jewellery Manufacturers association for more than 10 years. I am also holding the post of the executive committee member of The Indian Chamber of commerce and Industry, Coimbatore for more than 12 years. Our family is into jewellery business for more than 50 years and i am in this field of jewellery for more than 27 years.
Your plans, or your manifesto for GJC and industry (not more than 200 words, a separate sheet may be attached):	Sir, I will work to simplify the procedures for GST filing as many small wholesalers find it difficult to do it, as the procedures are tedious. Will try to improve the design and update the technology of the jewellery manufacturing in south. will try to improve business of the region by helping them in exports and local trade. will always be available to help them in the required time, 24/7. Will reduce the problem from the department both centre and state.
